

Mission statement of the Immanuel Albertinen Diakonie

The mission statement of the Immanuel Albertinen Diakonie describes our identity and sets out our fundamental principles. It guides us in our work and emphasises what we strive to achieve as an enterprise and as employees. It outlines the aspects that matter to us in our dealings with everyone we encounter. We want to measure ourselves by our realisation of this mission statement in our day-to-day work.

“Treat others as you want them to treat you.”

The Bible: Matthew 7:12

We practise benevolence.

- We act for the good of humanity and in pursuit of a more just world.
- We are guided by a Christian view of people and the world.
- We are united and connected by the spirit of lived benevolence.

We put people at the heart of our work.

- We support and accompany people in every phase of their lives.
- We respect the dignity and autonomy of every individual.
- We always treat others with respect and appreciation.
- We are mindful and show consideration for the good of others and ourselves.

We work together.

- We are part of a community and contribute to the success of our diaconal mission.
- We cherish our diversity and our differences.
- We work hand in hand, collaborating in a spirit of trust.
- We honour our traditions while remaining open to new developments.

We combine diaconal ministry and economic viability.

- Diaconal work is our mission.
- We utilise our economic success for the good of humanity.
- We target continuous improvement while accepting our human limitations.
- We strive to achieve sustainability and make responsible use of our resources.
